To All North East Families:

The North East School District has been advised by local police to remain in a soft lockdown at this time due to an incident in the community.

Student dismissal will be by parent pickup only. No students will be permitted to walk home or to drive themselves.

There will be No Bus Transportation this afternoon. All Parents are requested to report to the school doors to pick up their student(s). No student will be dismissed without being picked up by an authorized adult.

Elementary families should please wait until at least 3:45 p.m. prior to arriving on campus.

Your patience will be greatly appreciated during this process.

Dr. Michele S. Hartzell
Superintendent
